What is Neocolonialism?

-Developed countries controlling Less developed countries through indirect means we tend to see this happen in undeveloped countries that have resources that other big countries like the usa could profit of

-An example of this in history would be early African and how European countries slowly took over Africa . They used things like colonies,religion and even status to control the people who already lived there.

Why Is Neo-colonialism a problem?

- Most Countries don't usual care about Africa during Neo colonialism
- Used for European expansionism aimed at fostering European economic and trading interests.
- Africa Is the source for Raw Materials

Examples Of Neo-Colonialism

- “Francafrique” the “French Africa” that's mostly in the west and central of Africa
- Adapting to colonial way of thinking
- Countries are in depth and imperialism countries take over

If Africa built a wall around the continent, the rest of the world would go out of business.

AFRICA: OR HOW THE REST OF THE WORLD IS STEALING ALL THE GOODS IN THE NAME OF "DEMOCRACY"

Negative Effects Of Neo-Colonialism Africa

- created conflict between the Hutus and the tutsi
- Lost of culture
- Lost of Language
- lost in value for country

What are the impacts of Neo-colonialism

Africa is Hugely impacted by neo-colonialism for the same reasons that it suffered from colonialism. Neo-colonialism is an easier way to make profit its impact of unregulated forms of aid, trade and foreign direct investment; and the collaboration of African leaders with foreign leaders to ensure that the interests of both are met with little concern for the development, sustainability and poverty reduction and wellbeing in African countries.

- Change in Language
- Change in economics
- No benefit to Africa

How Can we stop Neo- Colonialism In Africa ?

-Being Independent and creating an Economic Dependency

- Satellite states

-Stop allowing free Labour

PROGRESS

Conclusion

-Instead of trying to take over other countries and put them into more poverty we should help these countries rebuild themselves. Especially, when these countries need help with there economy .I do believe that African could become one of or most richest countries if they stopped these countries from getting far in Imperialism .
